PROJECTS AND UNIQUE ATTRIBUTES [5]

Eastern Oklahoma County Technology Center (EOCTC) continues to serve the communities of Eastern Oklahoma County just has it has for the past 29 years. Serving approximately 600 students a year, EOCTC continues to grow and expand to meet the needs of a growing community and developing business sector. EOCTC continues to embrace new and relevant technologies in order to train students for success in the workplace and increase course offerings to reflect the changing work environment.

To better impact the business and industry sector, the Business and Industry Development Center continues to offer customized training and services, including a state certified business incubator.

Adapting to the increased demand for engineers, EOCTC has established a Science Technology Engineering & Math (STEM) Pre-Engineering Academy. The academy will strengthen a knowledge base preparing students for the rigors of university engineering majors and for a career in engineering.

Secondary students living in the technology center district who attend a public, private, parochial, charter, or home school are eligible to attend tuition free.
