

NAME _____

Lap 4 Test Apply What You Have Learned

Correct all punctuation errors. Watch for capitalization, commas, quotation marks, underlining, semicolons, colons, and apostrophes.

I'd like your opinion of what the article suggests, Tom added.

Sally have you ever been to Rock Springs? asked Herman.

It's a great place for a picnic, Herman said, and it has a pool nearby.

Stella, how many members of the club are in this county? asked Manuel.

There are sixty active members, replied Stella.

I have been saving money since I started keeping a budget, said Louise.

My poem is called If You Can.

Amy told me "you shouldn't have been concerned".

"Emily," she said "let's meet at the restaurant after work, okay?"

Do you like the song by the Dixie chicks too late now

Sally enjoys babysitting however she also likes working on her house.

sally is a big fan of TV for example she watches the home repair show daily.

Sally changed the light bulbs tested the circuits and washed the windows.

Sally's friends ask her about home maintenance they know nothing about it.

Frank said Medicine helps to heal our bodies music helps to heal our souls.

Cats have highly sensitive whiskers consequently they can become agitated when something brushes against their face.

The label on the sweater told where it was made it read Made in USA.

I'm certain she was born in Tulsa Oklahoma on Monday May 3 1991

I cant make it to the homeowners meeting but I can send my dues

Ive heard that Jeffs report was excellent.

We are going to the childrens department.

Pick up that girls coat.

Isnt that one of the stars of the television show Friends?

Sally I haven't seen the boys since 8 30 this morning.

Students are expected to purchase their art supplies before the first day of class paper three paint brushes and a drawing pen.

We elected Sam president Sally vice president and Bill treasurer.

Insert the appropriate punctuation where needed in the following business letter.

May 15 2003

Mr & Mrs Frank Doolittle
3429 Oak Creek Road
San Jose, CA 95134-3428

Dear Mr & Mrs Doolittle

Do you remember those lean days in the twenties and thirties Do you remember dating in high school and the whole town enjoying Saturdays matinee at the local Bijou Do you remember the anticipation as you walked to the theatre to see Oklahoma!, South pacific, and guys and dolls

Well, this grand environment is not gone with the wind It s alive and well and you can see it all at the New Capital Theatre 1298 Rock Creek Road San Jose California Yes, the New Capitol has been rebuilt literally from the ground up. The development of this replica of the original Capitol Theatre, which opened April 1 1926, took three years to complete. We chose colors of the Flapper Era black, white, and gold. The waiters vests are vintage. The curtain lace is vintage. The ceilings tiles are vintage. The California Tribune said This hotel is the essence of the Flapper Era.

The enclosed flyer announces our opening double feature plays Footlight Parade and Gold Diggers of 1933 and it includes a brief review of each movie. Please note that the early matinee on June 3 2004 starts at 4 30.

We look forward to seeing you

Sincerely,

Jack Broady President

Please write or type a letter asking for information. You can make it up if you like. Please include:

_____ six commas

_____ one colon

_____ one semicolon

_____ one quote

_____ two apostrophes

_____ one sentence with a BOYFANS

(Independent Clause, (BUT, OR, YET, FOR, AND, NOR, SO) Independent clause)

Watch for capitalization and use correct parts of speech. You can use your LAP for this letter.