

"Diversity "The Journey to Leadership"

Featured Speaker:

Astronaut John B. Herrington, Mission Specialist.

JOHN HERRINGTON - Astronaut, of the Chickasaw Nation. Herrington is the first Native American to walk in space when launched November 23, 2002 aboard the Space Shuttle Endeavor.

Serving as the flight engineer for launch and landing, Herrington vowed to carry the Chickasaw Nation flag with him into space. Members of his tribe watched the historic launch, and Herrington honored his Native American heritage by carrying six eagle feathers, a braid of sweet grass, two arrowheads, and his nation's flag.

OAMCTE Mission

The Oklahoma Association for the Advancement of Black Americans in Vocational Education was organized on August 3, 1988, as a non-profit organization committed to the promotion of greater participation by Black Americans in all facets of Career and Technology Education in the State of Oklahoma. On August 1, 2001, this organization officially changed its name to The Oklahoma Association of Minorities in Career and Technology Education. OAMCTE supports diversity in all aspects of Career and Technology Education: employment and educational opportunities.

The mission of OAMCTE is to increase awareness of Career and Technology Education among minority youth and adults for the purpose of providing leadership and direction in the economic and technical development of Oklahoma.

OAMCTE membership is open to all who advocate and promote Career and Technology Education and who support full participation and advancement of minorities in this broad field.
