

Kick-start career development with...

OKCIS JUNIOR

... is an online system of career development information and activities that set students on the road to planning for high school, college, and work life. OKCIS JR is designed around the questions:

Who Am I?

Where Am I Going?

How Do I Get There?

OKCIS JR information, activities, and portfolios...

- Are designed for middle school students
- Include quick, easy-to-read occupation descriptions
- Offer interest surveys and a financial "Reality Check"
- Pass on tips through interviews and videos of real people at work
- Include dozens of activities to help students figure out...

Who they are, Where they are going, and How to get there!

Shorter, snappier, and with all the details younger OKCIS users need.

"Junior" occupation descriptions:

The descriptions' question-and-answer approach gives direct answers to:

- What skills and abilities will I need?
- What are the working conditions?
- Will there be jobs in the future?
- How do I prepare?
- How much does it pay?

...and more

...transfer seamlessly to OKCIS later on in school

- OKCIS...
- Is used in high school, postsecondary training, through college, and with adults
 - Includes thousands of occupation, program of study, and school information files
 - Offers a variety of assessment tools
 - Gives financial aid and scholarship information

Portfolio:

OKCIS JR users establish their own online portfolio, which they continue using through high school, postsecondary training, college and beyond. As they build their portfolio, it will include their Plan of Study, links to their favorite OKCIS files, a resume/job application information sheet, and a record of their own thoughts. OKCIS Portfolios help students identify their strengths, accomplishments, goals, and ideas for the future.
