Recreation, Amusements & Attractions Pathway

Recreation Amusements & Attractions Management Assistant - This major prepares students as recreation amusements and attractions assistants who interact with people in an information-sharing activity or support activity that helps those on a daily outing or a vacation. Students receive an overview of the travel and tourism industry and destinations and events within the six distinct regions of Oklahoma as well as fundamental marketing and business management concepts and the use of technology in those areas. Instruction includes laws and regulations, planning and budgeting for events and projects, group travel and sightseeing, and sporting events along with an internship component to apply skills gained.
