Developing Future Leaders For Marketing and Management

SECTION ONE GENERAL INFORMATION

Being a DECA Chapter Officer - A Big Responsibility

It is important for the growth of each chapter to have a well-qualified and dependable group of officers. With capable officers, the business of the chapter will be conducted in proper parliamentary fashion, an effective Program of Work that includes all members will be maintained, records and minutes will be up to date and complete, good publicity will be generated, and all members will grow professionally.

Good judgment should be exercised by the membership when electing qualified officers. It is a mistake to look only for the most popular members. Qualifications for the position to which the individual will be elected should be the prime consideration. Be sure you have nominated a slate of officers who are willing to work hard to perform the duties and responsibilities of each office and who possess leadership qualities.

A leader is one who can communicate ideas and feelings, yet who is willing to listen and understand the need for democratic procedures. A good leader respects the rights, the abilities, and dignity of every member and is able to convey enthusiasm and inspire confidence. A good leader has the courage of convictions, but is open-minded. A leader is vitally interested in everything that concerns the chapter and the community and is willing to put the good of the chapter before personal desires.

During your term as a chapter officer, you undoubtedly will be corresponding and talking with businessmen and educators interested in DECA on the local, state, and national levels. Handle yourself in a very professional way, because you are the “DECA image.”

You will be a major part of local chapter meetings, and when you participate you should be concerned with the welfare of DECA. You will discover that by using tact, together with consideration and understanding of other people’s viewpoints, your job will be more effective. Also, the contribution you make will be measured in direct proportion to what you know, your understanding of the fundamentals of DECA, your use of good judgment, your enthusiasm, and the dignity of a chapter officer.

As an officer of this student organization, your greatest challenge will be to exhibit qualities of leadership that will make a contribution to the growth of DECA through the members with whom you have personal contact. Throughout the year, you will inspire leadership only to the degree that you personally give leadership. As you reach for higher goals in self-improvement and the attainment of higher goals for this organization, you are charged with the responsibility of developing enthusiasm whenever you speak officially for DECA during the year in which you serve as a chapter officer.

If a question arises as to your responsibilities during your term of office, your local Chapter Advisor stands ready to assist and guide you in fulfilling these duties.

Chapter Officer's Conduct

1. As a chapter officer, you represent the only organization attracting youth to careers in marketing and management.
2. Wherever you may go, people will be watching you. What you do and how you do it must leave a favorable impression. You must be mindful at all times that your conduct must never be questioned.
3. When appearing as a chapter officer before any group, regardless of its size, your DECA blazer should be worn. Your hair should always be neat and well groomed. Your shoes should be shined. Women should wear a matching skirt, heels and hose; the men should wear matching trousers and dark socks.
4. The words "please" and "thank you" are to be used often. You will find they pay liberal dividends.
5. Be careful what you say and how you say it.
6. Make the most effective use of your time and money. It is most important that you do your very best at all times.
7. Never commit yourself orally, or in writing, unless you are certain that you are right and have the support and backing of the chapter's membership. Once committed, you must keep the commitment.
8. If you have an appointment, plan to arrive before the appointed time.
9. If you must smoke, use good judgment in doing so. It is a standing tradition that DECA members do not smoke while wearing their DECA blazer.
10. Make a special effort to remember the names of people you meet. It might be helpful to keep a written record of these individuals for future reference, particularly if you want to send them a "thank you" note. Always be sure you have their name spelled correctly.
11. Be prompt in handling your correspondence. As a chapter officer, you are obligated to give a carbon copy of all correspondence to your chapter advisor. The chapter Secretary should set up a correspondence file for each officer at your school or institution.
12. Make it a point to know as much as you can about all the areas of vocational education within your school, particularly some of the activities of the other vocational student organizations.
13. If you have the opportunity to visit another chapter, find out as much as possible about the group before you visit, and always recognize the outstanding activities conducted by the group. At all times, you must avoid sarcasm and outright criticism. Make it a point to meet the individuals in charge and compliment them on their work. You should make an effort to be helpful to the members and officers whenever possible.

14. If you make a speech as a chapter officer during your term of office, here are some helpful suggestions:
 - a. Be sure to bring greetings from the rest of your chapter's officers.
 - b. Express appreciation for being invited to participate in the activity.
 - c. Let the audience know you are aware of some of the outstanding activities the group is doing.
 - d. Be sure to express appreciation for the efforts of the VIPs in promoting and assisting the group in its activities.
 - e. Do not talk too long. A five- to eight-minute speech that is well planned in advance and presented effectively will serve the purpose. Remember that banquet programs in particular have a tendency to last too long.
 - f. If you use jokes or stories in connection with your presentation, make certain that they offend no one.

Demonstrating Leadership

1. Be sure you know what you are talking about. You should make every effort to refrain from discussing topics which may be controversial.
2. Stay out of arguments. No one ever won an argument.
3. In making any kind of presentation before a group, never start a sentence with "I think." Discuss some of your chapter or state association activities, some of the outstanding accomplishments by DECA members, and other topics which you know will be of interest to those whom you are addressing.
4. It always pays to be a good listener; but at the same time, be a good conversationalist. It has been said that the secret of success lies in the ability to see things from the other person's viewpoint as well as your own.
5. It is imperative that you avoid a statement which can be interpreted as an endorsement, or implied endorsement, by DECA of any activity unless that activity has been officially approved by your chapter membership and Chapter Advisor.
6. Refer to fellow DECA members as "Marketing Management students" or "DECA members." If possible, it is always desirable to call fellow students by their first names.

7. When speaking with or about important or older people, they should be referred to as “Mr.,” “Mrs.,” or “Miss.”
8. When you are talking with other officers in public places, never be critical of anyone and avoid all “griping.”
9. It is always appropriate to find something good to say or talk about when discussing items or activities referring to Marketing Management or DECA. Avoid making negative comments. In addition, you should avoid the remark, “My chapter does it this way.”
10. Make it a point to act interested, to be friendly, and to smile. The words “Sir,” “Thank You,” and “Pardon Me” are never out of place.

Aids for Leadership

1. Think clearly. Act in good taste.
2. Get the facts and analyze them before you draw conclusions.
3. Develop the habits of cleanliness and orderliness.
4. Establish reasonable goals.
5. Take advice, but do your own thinking.
6. Encourage the other fellow as you go along.
7. Never say “It can’t be done” or “I can’t do that.” Find ways to accomplish appropriate goals.
8. Spend a little less than you make.
9. Make friends and keep the friendship in good repair.
10. Be proud of what you do--take pride in being a chapter officer.

Suggested Business Procedures for Conducting a DECA Chapter Meeting

In order to surround the formal planned business and professional meeting with the dignity to which it is entitled, a few suggestions are given here which should assist in developing and improving the procedures currently used.

Suggested Meeting Procedure

Every chapter should have an established order of business and follow it at all regular meetings. Members then know what to expect and can participate more effectively. The following order is suggested for regular meetings but is, of course, subject to modification to better fit the needs of any particular chapter.

VIII. Committee Reports

(The above process is repeated for each committee report)

IX. Unfinished Business

President: "We will now move into a period of old business. Is there any old business?"

Chapter member: "I move to take (old motion) from the table."

(Each motion is discussed and settled before another is introduced. When all old business is complete, the president moves on.)

X. New Business

President: "We will now move into a period of new business. Is there any new business?"

Chapter member: "I move to (state motion)."

Second Chapter member: "I second the motion."

President: (Calls on members to discuss the motion. The member introducing the motion has the opportunity to speak first or last to the motion. When all new business is completed, the president moves on.)

XI. Program

President: (Introduces the program speaker if one is planned)

XII. Announcements

President: "Are there any announcements?" (Chapter members are recognized to make any appropriate announcements.)

XIII. Adjournment

President: "If there is no further business, I will entertain a motion to adjourn the meeting."

Chapter member: "I move to adjourn the meeting."

Second chapter member: "I second the motion."

(The motion is non debatable, proceed to vote.)

President: (If approved) "I adjourn the meeting." (Rap gavel once)

(If the chapter wishes to adjourn the meeting before all business is completed, the meeting must be adjourned by a motion.)

Hints for the Vice President

The chapter Vice President is in charge of committee work in general, and therefore, will be working closely with all Program of Work committees. In order to coordinate the program, the Vice President may find the following report form and suggestions helpful. Two forms are provided in this section to assist in systematizing the committee assignment and report.

THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN

RESPONSIBILITIES	NOTES
1. Appoint subcommittee chairmen and call them together in a meeting. Call the meeting to order.	1. Be sure all sub-committee chairmen know each other by name.
2. Appoint a secretary of the general committee to take notes of meetings.	2. The general chairman does not have time to take notes at meetings.
3. Explain the overall task or problem to be handled by the committee.	3. Every member must know the total problem faced.
4. Ask for suggestions from the group.	4. Everybody should have a part.
5. After suggestions are made summarize each and have some fully discussed.	5. Discussion promotes understanding and brings out many new ideas.
6. Have group reach a decision.	6. Leadership calls for this function, as discussion without action is a waste.
7. Be sure the group understands what has been decided upon by summarizing.	7. This is important to future concerned effort on the part of the committee.
8. Thank members of group for their help and participation. Adjourn meeting.	8. Their efforts to think the problem through warrant recognition.
9. Review notes on the meeting with committee secretary.	9. Memory of what has taken place will correct many errors at this point.
10. Make up report of committee in duplicate and turn in one copy to the DECA Chapter Secretary as directed.	10. This is in partial fulfillment of the task assigned.
11. Be prepared (if called upon) at a subsequent meeting of the DECA chapter to make an oral report on what has been accomplished unless a lot of figures are involved that require reading.	11. A general chairperson is expected to have at his/her command all of the details of his/her assigned task to the degree that notes are not necessary.

TEN RULES OF LEADERSHIP

A LEADER must be . . .

1. SELF-CONFIDENT -- Confident from within. Believing in yourself. Getting right up if you're knocked down. Knowing you're good. It means proud, not arrogant.
2. IN CONTROL -- A person who can't control himself or herself can't control others. This takes concentration, self-discipline, calmness under pressure, no flying off the handle allowed.
3. FAIR -- That means being impartial, tolerant, having a keen sense of justice, being consistent in how you treat problems, people, praise and punishment.
4. DECISIVE -- Know how to make decisions, have the courage to make them, to make them quickly, to stand behind those decisions.
5. PREPARED -- This is a big one. You have to know your job, you have to know the jobs of those you lead, you have to do your homework, understand goals and priorities and the process of planning. No guesswork allowed.
6. A TEAM PLAYER -- You're not a loner--you're part of a team. Be loyal to that team. Listen as well as talk. Motivate. Teach. Tell people why, so they understand their roles on the team.
7. HONEST -- With yourself, with others! Integrity is the big one here--character. No one can teach you this. No one can order you to have it . . . it has to come with you and from you.
8. COMMITTED -- Ambition, ego, drive, and dedication all come into play here. Commitment means you don't just make goals, you try to reach them. It means you make commitments, not idle promises.
9. COURAGEOUS -- Not afraid to fail. Not afraid to admit a mistake. Not afraid to fight for an idea or person you believe in. Not afraid to make an unpopular decision.
10. above all, HUMAN -- Strong enough to be gentle. Empathy is important here, understanding that those you work with are people, not machines . . . people have problems. People aren't perfect. Understanding that we're all in it together in this game of life.
