An institution not only has the responsibility to provide its services in a nondiscriminatory manner, but it also has the responsibility not to foster discrimination by businesses that provide employment or workplace learning sites. To be a partner in that discrimination is illegal. Assignments cannot be made or withheld in such programs simply because of the race, national origin, sex/gender, or disability of the student. It is also illegal to cooperate with an employer that requests students on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex/gender, or disability status. It is recommended that agencies have written agreements whereby the cooperating worksite indicates that they will not discriminate and that they understand the school or college will not work with any business that does. It is necessary to review these written agreements, the assignments of students presently in such programs and the placement process to see whether any such patterns exist.
