Procrastination Registration and Check in for LIVESTOCK JUDGING.

6:30 -7:30 A.M. Place: Melvin Self Field House

ELIGIBILITY TO COMPETE

All Agricultural Education Chapters and 4-H Clubs in Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Kansas, Missouri

PROGRAM

2. Livestock judging contest begins promptly at 8:00 A.M. All other contests will start at 8:30 A.M. to 9:00 A.M.

- The livestock judging awards will be presented at approximately 2:00 p.m. at the indoor arena. All other awards may be picked up by the instructors in the Melvin Self Field House Multi-Purpose Room as soon as the contests are tabulated and the results are available.
- Each Agricultural Education Chapter may bring multiple teams per contest. 4-H Clubs may also enter and compete with multiple teams. However, only the highest performing team from a chapter, club or county is eligible for team awards in each division.
- The Livestock Judging Contest will consist of eight to twelve classes with a minimum of one set of oral reasons on each species (cattle, sheep, and swine). There will be at least one performance class in cattle and/or swine.
- Individuals will be allowed to enter in all contests. Their scores will be calculated and counted toward individual awards.
- American Farmers and Ranchers is sponsoring the Livestock Judging Contest. They will provide the meal for students. They will also be providing scholarships for the livestock judging awards.
- Alternates, Ag Instructors, Agents, and Adult Leaders will be given time to see the classes after the teams have placed them.
- Only those FFA instructors, agents and 4-H leaders selected to tabulate will be allowed in the tabulation room.

- Livestock Teams that are NOT entered through judging card and not late entered through CSC Ag by April 1st will be allowed to enter on the day of contest in an exhibition contest of the judging classes. They will not give reasons. Scores will be tabulated and available for instructors but contestants will not be eligible for awards.
- IF you PROCRASTINATE and enter the day of the contest, the cost per team is $35.00 and $10.00 per extra individual. (NEW FOR 2019)
