Thursday, April 9, 2020
Pick-up packets from 8am - 9am in the Raymond Harber Field House
Contests will start at 9am.

FFA Chapters are asked to pre-register by Thursday, April 2nd.
Please sign-up through Judgingcard.com.
$10.00 per team; $3 per individual

Cellphones or other electronic devices; aside from calculators; will not be allowed during the contest. Failure to comply will result in disqualification.

Guidelines and Rules

In the event of questions or concerns, Oklahoma State FFA Contest rules will be referenced.

Animal Science Quiz Bowl (Official Dress REQUIRED)
Oklahoma State FFA contest rules will apply. 4 Individuals per team; Order Pre-determined by the start of the contest. Available for grades 10, 11, and 12. There will be double elimination.

If you have a buzzer set and are willing to let us use the set - please let us know!

Employment Skills

Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA contest will be followed. Contest will consist of an interview ONLY. The Employment Skills Leadership Development Event is an individual event and will be limited to one competing participant per chapter. At the day of check-in, participants are required to submit a hard copy of their cover letter and resume for the judges to use as a point of reference.
Electricity

Each team will be comprised of three or four members. The top three scores will be used to determine the total team score. Contest will consist of a written test, ID, and practicum.

Entomology

Each team will be comprised of three or four members. The top three scores will be used to determine the total team score. Contest will consist of a written test and ID.

Environmental and Natural Resources

Each team will be comprised of three or four members. The top three scores will be used to determine the total team score. Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA Contest will be followed for the contest.

Farm & Agribusiness Management

Each team will be comprised of three or four members. The top three scores will be used to determine the total team score. Contest will consist of a written test. Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA Contest will be followed for the contest.

Food Science and Technology

Each team will be comprised of four members with all four scores counting toward the total team score. Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA contest will be followed for the contest.

Floriculture

Each team will be comprised of four members with all four scores counting toward the total team score. Contest will consist of a written test and plant material ID.

8th Grade Greenhand Quiz

OPEN TO 8TH GRADERS ONLY. Each team will be comprised of three or four members with the top three scores counting toward the team total. Contest will consist of a written test. Materials for this quiz event will be taken from the following current items: FFA Manual, FFA New Horizons, FFA Student Handbook, State FFA Constitution.
Land Judging

Each team will be comprised of three or four members with the top three scores counting toward the team total. Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA contest will be followed for the contest.

Milk Quality and Products

Each team will be comprised of three or four member with the top three scores counting toward the team total. Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA contest will be followed for the contest.

Soil & Water Conservation

Each team will be comprised of three or four member with the top three scores counting toward the team total. Guidelines from the Oklahoma State FFA contest will be followed for the contest.