

Course 1: Getting Started with Google Classroom - June 15-26

Learn how to use Google Classroom in blended and online learning spaces. Novice and experienced users welcome!

Course 2: Creating and Delivering Engaging Content - July 6-17

Learn how to utilize digital presentation, white board, simulation, video, and document tools to create and deliver engaging content as well as assess student understanding.

Course 3: Communication, Collaboration, and Critical Thinking in Digital Environments - July 20-31

Learn how to build classroom community, support rich discussion, and engage in critical thinking and collaboration in digital spaces.

Each course will also include synchronous office hours.

Teach from Anywhere:

Using Digital Tools to Support Seamless Learning

For PK-12 Teachers - No Prerequisite!
Three two-week long courses available!
All online! Work at your own pace!
25 PD Hours and a custom badge provided upon completion of each course.

$100 per course or $250 for all three!
Materials Needed: Internet-capable device, internet connection, a personal g-mail account

<https://okla.st/teachanywhere> Register here!

CENTER FOR
RESEARCH ON STEM
TEACHING AND LEARNING
College of Education, Health and Aviation

Contact: crstl@okstate.edu
(405)744-8111