Online Reporting: When is the online reporting transition occurring?

ACT introduced the online reporting system to users in the summer of 2019 to clients that do not participate in the ACT State & District testing programs. ACT will continue the roll out to all clients that participate in ACT State & District testing programs through March 2020. By April 2020, all clients will have access to the system.

What is a Comprehensive Assessment Plan

A comprehensive assessment plan is a detailed schedule of assessments designed to provide an unbroken chain of data that supports and enhances whole student learning from elementary through career. This tool provides you with a simple, visual layout of your current assessments across grades and ACT Holistic Framework domains, as well as recommended solutions to complete your comprehensive assessment plan.
