

Finance Cluster Program Descriptions

Financial Services

The Financial Services State Program Area prepares students for careers in financial planning. Students learn basic office, computer, and business math skills along with fundamental and advanced accounting principles. Students gain skills to manage both personal and corporate finances. In addition, the structure and operation of securities markets, portfolio management, and capital market theories are also topics covered in this career major.