

A-Z Review

Instructions

- Think about what you have learned in class recently.
- Write a word about what you have learned in each letter box. The word does not need to begin with that letter.
- Try to think of words others haven't used.
- At the end of the time given, you will get one (1) point for each word that applies. You will get two (2) points for words no one else has written down.

Note: This activity can be done in groups or individually; your instructor will decide.

Your instructor will decide the bonus to the winning individual or team.
