

HOSA STATE SPEECH

Sheryl Sandberg, Chief Operating Office of Facebook once said, "Leadership is about making others better as a result of your presence and making sure that impact lasts in your absence" Hello, my name is Mallori Reno and I would be honored to serve as a HOSA State Officer. I am a Senior at Prague High School and I am a Health Careers Certification student at Gordon Cooper Technology Center. I currently serve in many leadership roles. I am senior class president, the labor commissioner for Girl's State, and I also serve as President of my local HOSA chapter. In my school and community I show compassion for others, which I love to do, and I believe I could do a great job serving at the state HOSA level. I believe in teamwork, and I am ready to serve. HOSA would be my top priority. I promise to listen to the ideas of others to improve the future of HOSA.

My career goal is to be a labor and delivery nurse. It would be amazing to be able to watch life begin and be there to assist the child, mother, and doctor. Knowing that someday that tiny human could grow up to be the next President, the next person to go to the moon, or the next person to cure cancer would be the greatest joy of all. I love to help others.

I believe that by defining our purpose and working together we can make our future great. We must always strive for greatness and never give up. We must stand together and make make our future bright. HOSA gives that opportunity to students to further their medical career and help their future in the medical industry. I would be honored to lead as a HOSA state officer.

This once in a lifetime opportunity would give me the chance to also continue my dream through serving and helping others. "If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more, you are a leader" This is a quote from President John Quincy Adams. I have the ability to inspire others and to help them do more and become more. I would be a great asset to the HOSA state officer team and I would be proud to serve. I want to thank you greatly for your time. Please vote for me, Mallori Reno!
