LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Opening Session will begin at 9:00 a.m. After the Opening Session, leadership training will begin. A closing session and installation of the 2019-2020 State Officer Team will follow the leadership training. There will not be concessions at the Embassy Suites so please make sure your students eat something before coming to the conference.

STATE OFFICER ELECTION

The 2019-2020 Oklahoma HOSA State Officer team will be elected and installed at this conference. The officer candidate campaign speeches will be posted to www.okhosa.org >Conference> Fall Leadership Conference by October 28, 2019. Local chapter members are encouraged to preview the campaign speeches on the OK HOSA website and caucus prior to the conference. All chapters attending FLC have the opportunity to vote for the 2019-2020 State Officer team.

PIN CONTEST

We will be voting on the Oklahoma HOSA pin design at this conference. Chapters will have the opportunity to preview the top three designs on the website and caucus prior to the conference. All chapters attending FLC will have the opportunity to vote on their favorite design.

DRESS CODE

Required dress for this year's conference will be the conference t-shirt, solid colored slacks (at least ankle length) or skirt (at least knee length) and appropriate foot wear. Photos and a video describing the dress code is located at www.okhosa.org > Conferences > Fall Leadership Conference. The purpose of the dress code is to uphold the professionalism and image of HOSA-Future Health Professionals and its members. No jeans, shorts, tank tops, halter-tops, mini skirts, cut-offs, or crop tops are permissible.

IGNITE YOUR PASSION for pediatric cancer!

This year's HOSA National Service Project is with National Pediatric Cancer Foundation. Oklahoma HOSA wants to “Be the Change” for pediatric cancer by collecting change. Please bring your chapter's counted donation to conference. Donation flyer and form linked to the OKHOSA website
